

Indigenous Services Canada, First Nations and Inuit Health Overview and Challenges

Indigenous Services
Canada

Services aux
Autochtones Canada

Overview

Indigenous Services Canada (ISC) works collaboratively with partners to improve access to high quality services for First Nations, Inuit and Métis. Their vision is to support and empower Indigenous peoples to independently deliver services and address the socio-economic conditions in their communities.

Challenges

Accordion: start copy

Challenge 1

Engaging youth in shaping policy and programs

How can the federal government better engage youth in policy and program development and implementation?

Challenge 2

Involving youth in the development of public health messaging

How can public health better support youth to develop public health messages and support for youth to bring hope, meaning, purpose and belonging?

Challenge 3

Supporting mental wellness in children and youth

How can public health better support the mental wellness of children and youth, especially those facing inequities, adversity and/or racism and discrimination?

Accordion: end copy